Please join us for an information session on Information Governance that will provide updates to recent developments on rights of privacy, public access and confidentiality of records in corporations and institutions.

Paula J. Johnson, CRM, will provide an overview of recent changes in the California Public Records Act, Information Practices Act and their impact for records management. Ms. Johnson is the Director of Policy & Records Administration for the University of California at San Diego and is responsible for the campus records management program. Ms. Johnson also serves as the public access official for requests for records under public access laws.

Merry Christmas
Since we won't see you again until the January meeting.
